

ASEMC Trials Championship 2024

It was a disappointing start to the ASEMC Championship with the West Suffolk MC having to cancel the Holbeck trial, due to the venue being waterlogged. We were hoping that it will be re-scheduled for another date.

The Cambridge MC moved the Roger Holmes trial from January to March hoping the weather would be more favourable to run the event. On 17th March it was touch and go whether it would be dry enough for the trial to go ahead. The day of the event was overcast with the rain holding of. The club could have done with more entries. The venue was very slippery to begin with but as the day progressed the wind started to dry the hills out.

Doubts were had leading up to the MMKMC Tyrwhitt Drake on the 7th April due to the never ending rain. Setting up on the Saturday the weather was in our favour but overnight the heavens opened up. On the Sunday it was a trial on its own to enter the field and to negotiate the slippery conditions to park. The hills at the start of the event were vey slippery but as the day progressed it started to dry out with several drivers cleaning the hills.

Sunday April 21<sup>s</sup> the Falcon MC had a full entry for the Spring Trial at Ivinghoe near Dunstable. This event always attracts a large entry due to there being four different championships you can enter for. A very enjoyable trial to take part in. The venue covers a long valley having enough area for eight hills.

The ASEMC Car Trials Points so far.

Class 1 Mike Thomas	16 points
Class 2 David Holmes	35 points
Class 3 Cliff Morrell	30 points
Class 4 Andy Laing	25 points
